

Recovery from the trauma of sexual abuse

“It twists your thinking, evil becomes comfortably normal... I’ve learned how to keep myself safe.”
childhood sexual abuse survivor

The Job 17 Project is offering healing and hope to survivors of sexual abuse. The Peacemaker Center offers:

- Abuse awareness
- Healing and recovery
- Prevention training
- Classes for victims
- Coaching for survivors and their families
- Training for lay and professional people

We’ll be there...at your facility, ours, or a location of your choice.

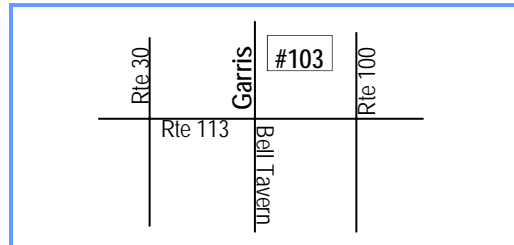

Partnership Opportunities

When you want to do something to help:

- Pray with us, for us, for your hurting friends or family
- Refer someone who needs our help
- Invite our therapists to meet with your small group, family, church or business to brainstorm solutions
- Volunteer to clean our office, greet visitors, organize and tidy office space, prepare mailings or landscaping
- Donate your services, time and money to help the center be able to provide counseling regardless of someone’s ability to pay

LOST...

Have you lost the will to get out of bed? You don't feel like praying... More and more do you just want to escape?

BROKEN...

"...My spirit is broken, where then is my hope?"
—Job to God
(Job 17:1,15)

Are you angry, upset or grieving for apparently no reason at all? Are you feeling hopeless, subjected to addictions, trapped in repetitive behaviors? Or, do you want to avoid the mistakes your parents made?

God has an answer for your pain and we're here to help you find it at The Peacemaker Center. He tells us in His Word, the Bible...

"...[I have] plans to give you a hope and a future." —God (Jer. 29:11)

God has a plan for each of us and He wants us to know it.

"Then you will call on me, and come and pray to me and I will listen to you... You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart."

—God (Jer. 29:11-13)

We can help you find your way

"They helped me and my kids recover from trauma caused by my husband's mental illness and eventual suicide." Jen

"We were helped to navigate through the grieving process when our son was born still." Lisa & Brandon

"I didn't know I needed help. My husband didn't recognize me anymore. Therapy helped me accept my career anxiety and depression and the process of learning to be me." Barbara

"After 35 years of marriage, you helped us understand why our conversations ... would break down and abruptly end in anger and resentment ... finances are no longer an issue and our marriage is restored." Rick & Mary

"I suffered for 10 years with bulimia. Karen showed me how much she cared and was there for me through my healing and recovery." Kathy

Drawing on an experienced network of Christian psychiatrists, physicians, churches and lawyers, we provide continuity of care for your unique circumstances. Don't let finances keep you from calling!
